

LAKE NORMAN

CURRENTS

Dining Lakeside

Check out our list of waterfront restaurants

Laura Woodall's
giving spirit

Rural Hill is ready

Beautiful bangles
for summer

RESTORE RESTYLE 2012 DESIGN CHALLENGE

On May 1 Mooresville ReStore hosted the ReStore ReStyle 2012 Design Challenge. This is the second year for the event, which featured eight interior designers competing to see who could design the most amazing room by repurposing ReStore merchandise. Tina Goins of Stix and Stones Interiors won the Judge's Choice Best Room award, while Kerrie Boys won the People's Choice Best Room award. Joan Higginbotham, Jennifer Marion-Mills and Starr Miller served as the judges. All proceeds from the evening benefited Our Towns Habitat for Humanity.

From left, Jennifer Marion-Mills, Joan Higginbotham and Becky Charles.

From left, Kerrie Boys and Amy Williamson.

From left, the three judges of the event — Starr Miller, Joan Higginbotham and Jennifer Marion-Mills.

From left, Amy Williamson, Tina Goins (winner Judge's Choice Best Room) and Amy DeCaron.

From left, Amy Williamson, Amy DeCaron, Kerrie Boys (winner of People's Choice Best Room) and Brian MacLeod.

Devon Freud talks about the room she designed.

Devon Freud with her husband, Andrew, and daughters, Isabella and Jezel.